Bulletin 6 – 24 June 2024

Welcome to our sixth bulletin of the First Actuarial Monkey Euros 2024. During the tournament, we will be giving you regular updates on the latest happenings from Germany, and the current standings in our competition to ensure you're all aware of how well (or not!) you're doing.

Poland 1 - 3 Austria

Austria collected their first 3 points of the tournament after Marko Arnautovic sealed the win from the penalty spot. Ralf Rangnick's men currently sit top of the 3rd place ranking table. Poland became the first side to exit the competition with two defeats from two.

Netherlands 0 - 0 France

The two sides played out the first stalemate of this years Euro's, after a well celebrated Dutch goal from Xavi Simons was eventually and controversially ruled out for offside. Kylian Mbappe, who many had tipped for the top goalscorer accolade, was unused during the fixture that confirmed the Eagles exit from the competition.

Slovakia 1 - 2 Ukraine

A comeback win for the Ukrainians got them off the mark in the competition. Mykola Shaparenko and Roman Yaremchuk's second half goals enough to overcome The Falcons who were still likely flying high after their shock opening win against Belgium.

Belgium 2 - 0 Romania

Belgium bounced back after their first game setback, running out 2 nil winners in an impressive team display. Youri Tielemans opening the scoring inside 90 seconds before Man City star Kevin De Bruyne doubled their lead. The result leaves the group wide open with all sides on 3 points after two games played.

Georgia 1 - 1 Czech Republic

Tournament debutants Georgia continue to impress and surprise viewers as they collect their first ever points in major competitions. A penalty on the stroke of half time put them ahead before Patrik Schick brought the Czech's level again.

Turkey 0 - 3 Portugal

Pitch invaders looking to grab the attention of Cristiano Ronaldo took some of the attention away from the game, perhaps fortunately for Turkey who were well beaten after a disappointing display. Premier League campaigners Bernardo Silva and Bruno Fernandes on target with an own goal rounding off the trio. Two wins from two for Portugal should mean a more favourable draw in the last 16.

Scotland 0 - 1 Hungary

A hundredth minute winner from Kevin Csoboth condemned the Scot's to another group stage exit in a major tournament. With both sides needing all three points to have a chance of making it into the knockout stages, it was frenetic in the later stages. After committing bodies forward for an injury time corner, Hungary slotted home the winner on break with seconds to spare.

Switzerland 1 - 1 Germany

The Germans required a late equaliser to avoid defeat against a positive Swiss side who opened the scoring with a well worked goal, finished off by Dan Ndoye. The result means Germany go through as group winners and may meet England as their last 16 opponents, with their rivals on the night taking the runner up spot.

'Scotta be better than that

Another disappointing outing means Scotland's (not-so) impressive run of 11 consecutive group-stage exits at international tournaments extends to 12, with this result also leaving them winless in major tournaments since 1996.

Results

Hugo Berry manages to keep his top-spot, just edging out Aaron Love who scored an impressive 48 points in climbing up to 2nd place.

Jamie McLeod was the highest scorer of the weekend, scoring 51 points and moving up the table by 81 places. While a dissapointing -11 points sees Ashraf Mitha fall from 40th to 120th position.
